Helpful hints for the vegetable, fruit and flower classes

ALL vegetables, fruit and flowers should be grown or nurtured by you except 61 -63

VEGETABLES – GROUP A

ALL vegetables should be well matched in terms of size, shape and colour.

WHITE POTATOES - potatoes with no colour at all.

ONIONS and LEEKS should be shown with tops and roots intact.

TRIMMED means with leaves cut off leaving no more than 25-50mm of stems, sometimes tied.

SHALLOTS should be shown dried, roots cut off to the basal plate and tops neatly tied. Stage on a plate of dry sand.

SHALLOTS PICKLING must pass through a 30mm ring.

TOMATOES should be shown with calyces attached.

HERBS should be presented in neat, firm bunches.

COURGETTES, if round, to be about 7.5cm diameter or if long between 10-20cm in length.

RHUBARB is classified as a vegetable for show purposes, and should be shown in Class 22 with trimmed stalk(s)

SALAD ITEMS for Class 25 will be judged on overall quality, not quantity.

FRUIT – GROUP B

ALL fruit should be shown unpolished with stalks, and well matched in terms of size, shape and colour.

BERRY FRUITS include blackberries and all hybrid cane fruits, gooseberries and gooseberry hybrids, raspberries, strawberries, blueberries and currants, BUT not tree fruits such as mulberries.

FLOWERS – GROUP C

CLASSES 56 to 60 should be grown by the entrant or kept for at least 6 months prior to showing.

FUCHSIA BLOOMS should be presented on a plate of moist sand.

A SPIKE is an unbranched inflorescence with an elongated axis, bearing either stalked or stalk less flowers, as in cymbidium, delphinium, foxglove, gladiolus or hollyhock.

A BOX is an inverted box (e.g. shoe box) with holes into which short-stemmed roses or flowers are slotted. You may use jam jars of water beneath for the stems to sit in.

COLLECTIONS - the criteria for judging will include the number of varieties as well as condition.

CLASSES 61 to 63 – bought flowers and foliage are allowed.

On show day, please note that the prize-giving and auction will start at 4.15pm.

We would like to thank the many entrants who leave their produce to be auctioned to help raise funds to cover the cost of running the show.

If you have any questions, please contact the Show Secretary Gill Astley, 07963 821052 or email via the link on the website.

Helpful hints for the home produce, handicraft and photograph classes

HOME PRODUCE – GROUP F

ALL items will be tasted for judging.

RECIPES – where you are asked to ‘see recipe’, please use the recipe as given on page 8.

CAKE PRESENTATION

Use the tin size stated to achieve best results and present your cake on a plate. Remember to collect your plate(s) at the end of the day if donating your cake(s) to the auction.

CLASS 72 – COFFEE AND WALNUT CAKE

Ensure the cake has cooled completely before adding the filling.

The size of the baking tins used will not be considered when judging.

CLASS 73 - FRUIT CAKE

Take care not to simmer on too high a heat or for too long.

Allow to cool properly before adding the egg and flour.

The size of the baking tin used will not be considered when judging.

CLASS 74 – CHEESE SCONES

The four scones should be of matched size and shape.

CLASS 76 – ‘FREE-FROM’ - Please include a card stating all ingredients and note what your exhibit is ‘free-from’.

CLASSES 78 to 83 – PRESERVES

Fill jars to within 6mm of the top, for jams, jellies and curds use a wax disc and label with type and date made. With curds use cellophane covers as they have a short preservation use ie 6 weeks.

Tops with a plastic lining may be used instead of cellophane covers for jams and jellies. Please do not use plastic lids. Take care, if recycling jars, that previous uses do not taint your preserve. Check lids are undamaged and give an airtight seal. Judges advise using new jars and lids or, if recycled, there should be no trade names.

HANDICRAFTS – GROUP G

CLASS 84 may be exhibited by using a clothes hanger.

CLASS 88 may be exhibited by being hung from batons, so we suggest that you add loops for hanging. Please remember to add its size on the entry form to help with display.

CLASSES 93-95 can be any size but please bring a display stand if the exhibit is large.

CLASS 95 includes pen/line and wash, inks, pastels, charcoal etc.

CLASS 99 needs a small card attached to it that lists the recycled materials used in the item.

CLASS 100 please state the size of the item on the entry form to help with display.

CLASS 102 aims to give more scope to exhibit your craft items not covered in the other titles e.g. printing, calligraphy, lace work, metalwork. Please state the size of the item on the entry form to help with display.

PHOTOGRAPHS – GROUP H

Please do not mount your photograph(s)

SIZES – All photographs should be maximum size 20cmx15cm

CLASS 103 – Out and About in Braunston
Needs to be recognisable as Braunston

CLASS 109 – Creative Fun!

Take your original image and be digitally creative and have some fun with it - in any way you like.

Show your two images (the original and the enhanced image) side by side - each image maximum size 18cm x 13cm.

Braunston Bakes Carol Davey & George Green Perpetual Challenge Trophies

No item should have been shown in previous years.

What would you like to see in the Show Schedule?

Approach the Show Secretary on the day or message by email via the village website – www.braunston.org.uk/bvga

As well as competing with others, a number of families enjoy competing with each other. Look at the Open Class (OC) categories and hold a fun competition by encouraging friends and family, who may have no direct link with the village, to join you entering the varied classes.

We look forward to seeing you at Braunston Village Hall on Show Day

SURPLUS PRODUCE?

For the first time this year we are liaising with All Saints Church in Braunston to distribute any surplus show produce. This will be fruit and vegetables that didn't make your entry but leaves you with a glut! If you are happy to donate these on show day, we will have a place where you can deposit items and they will be shared with those in the village who will most appreciate them, by volunteers from the church.

ALL SHOW ITEMS WILL BE AUCTIONED IN THE USUAL WAY

Class 114 for the Under 5s
