OBITUARIES.

July 6th and 9th. Funeral Service & Cremation, followed by Interment of Ashes -
Emma WORRALL, aged 90 years.

August 10th. Funeral Service and Cremation -
Gladys May PEARCEY, aged 55 years.

August 15th. Service at Crematorium -
William WHITLOCK, aged 87 years.

Our sympathy is offered to Mr. Joshua Worrall and Family. 72 years of happy married life together were achieved when both cared for each other, and were backed up by their children - now all pensioners - and in particular to Mr. & Mrs. Pittam and Mrs. King who shewed great love and affection to their parents.
We extend to Mr. Desmond Pearcey, John, Pat and David - also the Family - our deepest sympathy on the death of Mrs. Pearcey who had suffered so much ill health for the past six years. We give thanks for the care once more of the family and friends. The Church expresses its thanks for the sum of £115 donated in memory of Mrs. Pearcey.
Our condolence is offered to Mr. & Mrs. Whitlock and Family on the death of their father, who came to Braunston a few years ago. May the Souls of God's Faithful Servants Rest in Peace.

My Dear Parishioners,

In 1960 I wrote a letter at the beginning of the Stewardship Campaign on the theme of the Preaching Cross in our Church. The Church stands on a hill. On the hill of Calvary our Lord Jesus Christ was crucified and only through Christ can salvation be gained. The Madonna and Child (now missing) stands for the Family Life of the people. All of us should work for the sacredness of the Family. A Bishop - reminding us of the Ministry of the Church - of the need of bishops, priests and deacons. They need every one of you to pray regularly for your Clergy - We certainly need your prayers today - and pray for my successor. The Soldier - We have been marked - branded with the sign of the Cross at our Baptism to remind us that we are Soldiers of Christ, fighting against sin, the world and the devil. What are the needs of the Parish - A Church to be kept beautiful for the worship of God. Please respond to her call. It is YOUR Church. May I thank you for your generosity in response to her various calls - Repairs of the Spire, Heating, Painting, Gifts of a new High Altar and the new Screen in memory of the Rev. Henry Ruddy and Mrs. Evitts and her brother-in-law, Mr. Daniel Freeman.
How blessed I have been with my Church Officers - Wardens, the late Mr. Jack Sanders, Mr. Sidney Capell, the late Mr. Bill Calloway, Mr. Peter Green and Mr. Brian Dawson. Secretaries - Mr. Duncan Gallie and Mrs. Jean Woodall. Treasurers - the late Mr. Jack Sanders and Mr. Bill Woodall. How indebted we are to Mr. Ernie Clarke for the care he has taken over the building side, and the opening and closing of the Church daily. We are indebted too to Mrs. George Manning for the way the Church has been kept beautifully clean.

What of the Parish generally - A New School - I have certainly enjoyed my Friday mornings there. Headmasters - Mr. Duncan Gallie, Mr. Trevor Bishop, Mr. Brian Dawson and Mr. David Thrower. The Friendly Club - The late Mrs. Alderson-Smith, the late Mrs. Edith Hall, Mrs. Horace Turner, Mrs. Beckett and Mrs. McCarthy and the regular helpers who have done a noble piece of work - it is thriving.
The Village Centre has been successful and very useful. We must not forget that the Diocese of Peterborough, The Archdeacon of Northampton in particular, did not allow the old School to be sold in the Open Market, but at a nominal price to the Village. Thanks to those who helped to make it so very attractive.

The Playing Field. - It is good to have a Village Play-field and it is hoped that it will be fully used by all.

The Village Newsletter. This has gone from strength to strength. Many thanks to my wife, Mrs. Norah Griffiths, who paid for the paper for the first year to put it on its feet, Mr. Brian Dawson and Mr. Thrower, for allowing it to be printed in School, Mrs. Noble for her willingness and helpfulness at all times in its printing, Mrs. Jean Woodall for all the times when the school was closed but the printing went on through her efforts,

Mrs. Gallie for typing it out first of all, and special thanks to our Editor, Mr. Duncan Gallie. Our thanks also to all the distributors who though the years have taken it to your homes.

After 20 years in your midst it is hard and difficult for my wife and I to say Goodbye-God be with you. But it is time for a change. Continue to support the Church and give my successor all the help he needs. It is not easy to be a priest these days, but it is a wonderful work.

My wife and I wish you every Blessing, and thanks.

Yours sincerely,

W. Bevan Griffiths, Rector.

THANKS to a subscriber who gave £1 towards the cost of the Braunston Village News. PIANO. Has anyone a spare piano for use in the Church.

BRAUNSTON WOMEN'S INSTITUTE. Our July and August meetings were stimulating, interesting, and educational. In July a marriage guidance Counsellor spoke about her work and how Counsellors are chosen and trained. The August meeting brought us a speaker outlining the background to the proposal to site the Third London Airport at Yardley Chase. Concern was expressed by the speaker and those present for our environment and quality of life should Yardley Chase be the final choice. The September 4th meeting includes a speaker on the aims and objects of the Lyons Club.

BRAUNSTON FRIENDLY CLUB. On September 10th we entertain the Ryton-on-Dunsmore Club. Mrs. Wootten will be in charge of the entertainment. On September 12th we have arranged a coach to visit the Age Concern Rally at Boughton House, near Kettering. The coach fare is 75p. and this must be paid by 10th September. There may be a few seats to spare - any retired non-members wishing to go please contact Mrs. H.W. Turner. On 24th September we have our Harvest Sale and hope for a generous contribution.

BRAUNSTON YOUNG WIVES. Many thanks to all who supported our sponsored swim for the "Year of the Child". We have handed in over £200 already. Our July meeting was a car treasure hunt through lovely countryside previously unvisited by us. On 11th September there will be a talk by Mr. W. Furber, a Veterinary Surgeon.

They commence their league programme at home to Norton Lindsay on Sunday afternoon, September 9th, kick off 2.30 p.m. Training has commenced on Tuesday nights 7 p.m.-8 p.m. and Sunday Mornings 10 a.m. to 11 a.m. on the Playing Field.
