

BRAUNSTON WOMENS INSTITUTE.

The W.I. have had, in a busy year, a particularly lively time. Twenty-nine members joined a trainload bound for Harrogate Spring Flower Show. Another venue was Nottingham, for a tour of Boots. Fifteen members submitted a variety of craftwork for the Life and Leisure Exhibition at Olympia. And as their contribution to W.I.Promotions (with a little help from their friends) they put on a supper and revue in the 'Twenties' idiom during Braunston Festival Weekend. At the May meeting, resolutions for the Albert Hall were discussed with the V.C.O. Mrs.C.Farmer.

BRAUNSTON SCOUTS AND CUBS.

Our Annual General Meeting will be held on Monday, 4th June in conjunction with a Cheese and Wine Evening. The prizes for the Grand Raffle will also be drawn during the evening. All parents and supporters are welcome.

We offer congratulations to Mr. Bill Meacham who has been awarded the Scout Association "Medal of Merit" for his services to Scouting over the past sixteen years. The medal was presented by Mr. Brian Brayshaw, Assistant County Commissioner for Northamptonshire Scouts.

BRAUNSTON MAY FESTIVAL.

The Village Hall Committee wishes to thank all those individuals and organisations who gave time, talents, facilities and money to create the May Festival. The weekend was much enjoyed by many villagers and visitors. A full account of the proceeds and their distribution will be published.
