20.11.06	Community Rebuilding Week
	Jo Glover reported that the initial booking of 7 sessions were reduced to 4 and that the admin around the event was not particularly good. Jo gave an outline of the sessions and items covered. She agreed to send around the presentations and notes when they became available.
20.11.07	Christmas Trees
	Pete Morgan, David Cary, Graham Newman and the clerk volunteered to distribute the village trees. It will be either 28 th Nov or 5 th Dec depending on delivery It was proposed by John Pomfret, seconded by Jo Glover and carried that £500 budget be set aside for the provision of a large Christmas tree on The Green. It was agreed that the tree would be on The Green rather than the Triangle as

	we own The Green and therefore less H&S issues. The tree will be lit with white solar lights and the clerk would check re insurance and risk assessment. The clerk also agreed to approach Mr Phips to see if he would use his auger to make the necessary sized hole. Sue Harrison is liaising with Dennett's over the supply of the tree.
